TRACTS NEAR FOREST PARK MAY BE SOLD.

Deal Reported in Progress for Catlin Land and Adjoining Pieces of Real Estate.

rts were current yesterday of heavy realty deals in tracts lying just north of Forest Park, many of which are large individual holdings. The Catlin tract, the McCorkle tract and the tract owned b W. B. Thompson of this city all figure in the

The Catlin tract, which was purchased recently by a syndicate, lies immediately north of Forest Park and controls nearly three-fourths of the northern frontage of the park. The McCorkie tract, contains sixty-one acres and lies between DeGiverville avenue, Kingsbury boulevard and Jacob and DeGiverville avenues on both sides of Waterman avenue.

Jacob and DeGiverville avenues on both sides of Waterman avenue.

The tract owned by W. B. Thompson and Mrs. Siade of Alton is bounded by Kingsbury boulevard, Delmar boulevard, Goodfellow avenue, and the Wabash tracks. Thirty acres owned by the Forest Park Realty Company and lying between DeGiverville avenue, the Colorado Railroad tracks, Skinker road and Jacob avenue also figure in the report.

It is said, that in the negotiations now pending, $1,000,000 is asked for the Catlin tract, $500,000 for the McCorkie tract, $25.000 for the Thompson and Slade tract, and $500,000 for the tract owned by the Forest Park Realty Company.

Mosca Greenwood, Jr., and David Leahv of the Lincoln Trust Company are both mentioned in connection with the sale, Mr. Leahy denied knowledge of any deal connected with the property.

The third new brewery to be erected in the city is that of the Empire Brewing Company destined for Sarah street and the Wabash tracks. The building will cover the greater part of a lot 250x86 feet, sold to the company lately by the Mercantile Trust Company.

The manufacturing firm of Philaoert & Johanning will erect a factory on Talmage street in the near future, while a business house is rumored for the corner of Twenty-third and Walnut streets, sold by the Nicholas-Ritter Company to P. P. Green, recently, on behalf of Slias H. Wright. The corner is improved with small flats at present, and is Six135 feet.

A. R. Roseman is contemplating the erection of a flat building on the north side of Kensington place, the lot having been purchased last week from Joseph V. Little of the Bridge-Beach Manufacturing Company. The site lies 166 feet west of Academy avenue.

Such paraphernalia was never sent to the saloon; the police had no occasion to go near the place for that reason, and there was no intention on the part of Mr. Menges or any one eise to conduct such a game.

The report grew out of a story, said to have been told by a detective, but upon investigation at pelice headquarters it was learned that the information was incorrect.

J. A. Joel occupies the room in the rear of Menges's saloon, conducting a branch of the Cella Commission Company of St. Louis. He has been doing a legitimate brokerage business there for more than a month, and the report that a proposed policy game had been raided caused him considerable annoyance, as his room is the only one in the place mentioned.
